Feature of Opening Day on Fort Erie Course Is Maple Leaf

New York, August 16.—Wilbur Wright talked with a reporter to-day about his new five-passenger biplane that has arrived at Asbury Park from the Wright's Dayton shops. He explained that the absence of front clevating planes, a feature, which has excited the curiosity of other air men, will result in a new system of control, with which he and his brother are experimenting.

The Wrights want to build a machine that can be handled more slowly than any thus far obtained. The new biplane is not for trick work, and the kind of spiral flying that Johnston does. The Wrights are working toward the development of a more practical aeropiane, one that can be used by amateurs.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

With the Bugs falling two points if the slice of stock is large enough. below Richmond's hitting mark, and Richmond scoring the first run, Danville walked away with the Colts yesterday by the score of 2 to 1 without a qualm of compassion for the under dog. Which, by the way, puts Richmond again in fourth place with Tweet. below Richmond's hitting mark, and mond again in fourth place, with Lynch-burg, which also lost yesterday, ahead From present prospects Petersburg and Lynchburg will have a hot race for the cellar yet, although Peters-burg looks a little the best shot for the place. But there is no necessity for uneasiness. Richmond may win.

most one in the minds of the fans at this writing. Richmond is so apparently out of the race for the pennant that the race has little interest. The games are interesting except when the soreheads get busy, Therefore, Montreal and its franchise is being queried.

At present all that is known of matter is that an ex-big leaguer, v is well fixed financially, and, active leaguer, who is also well fixed, w ieaguer, who is also well fixed, want to put the club here and are willing to put up the money for it. W. s. Bradley has the baseball rights of Richmond now, and if he does not want to abandon the Virginia League he can refuse to have the other club come in. It is proposed by the promoters, however, to take Mr. Bradley into partnership with them and give nim a slice of the stock for his baseball rights in Richmond. In that way everybody should be satisfied, that is, Admiraton, 250 Grandstand, have to be patched.

One thing the Richmond fans wil One thing the Richmond fans will have to remember if the Montrea franchise is brought to Richmond. That is that they are sitting in a gam with a bigger limit than they have played for a long time. Therefore, the team does not make a great showing there must be no hammering. The fans know what they are stacking u against, and they will have to sit it the game to the finish. against, and they will have to sit the game to the finish.

In regard to the story publish In regard to the story publish. Sunday showing Pop, Tate's battit average, an old fan writes to say th. Pop did not jump from the mark team to the professional ranks, al names several organizations in which the played in the interim. The writidd not mean to list all of the serpro teams that Pop stuyed on, bue moly wanted to give his beginning all his career in real professional ran. The correction, however, is gladly seived. It all happened before the writer's birth, so, of course, his reclection is rather hazy in that regal
